AMES, Neb., Jan. 22 .- To the Editor of The Bee: I have just been forwarded a clipping from The Bee of last Monday, I suppose, about an outbreak of cattle diseases at Hooper, Neb., resulting in the dropping off of the hoofs. This is in all probability the same thing as an outbreak at Lyons and Emporia, Kan., in 1883, which created great

Card from Prof. Heise. OMAHA, Jan. 22 .- To the Editor of The Bee: I am anxious to make a statement in your paper in regard to my experience in Cedar Rapids, Ia. Last fall I took a very active part in the Iowa campaign, stumping the state from the Missouri to the Missis-sippi. At the conclusion of the campaign I went to Des Moines and by request of some prominent saloon men I agreed to act as state organizer for a protective rights league, whose object it should be to promote home manufacture and protection thereof; also to modify the mulct law. cities I came to Cedar Rapids, as there is in that city a strong anti-organization element which handles outside beer. They put up a job on me, took me to a saloon and slugged me and afterward the three cowards who assaulted me swore out a warrant for my arrest, charging me with as-sault with intent to kill and with breaking several hundred dollars worth of plate glass. I was arraigned before a justice of the ceace and, as the trio swore against me, bound over to the grand jury; but after ex-amining all the evidence the grand jury could find no true bill against me and I was discharged. I desire, Mr. Editor, to ex-press thanks to Mayor Griffiths for his firm stand as attorney in my behalf. Respect fully, PHILIP F. HEISE.
